

Nini Andrade Silva — The Boldness Of Free & Creative Ideas —

Occasionally in the world of interior design, one may live the feelings of others and their moments in which they become attached to unusual and astonishing places and corners as well as spaces of beauty and art that imitate the sun and its golden rays.

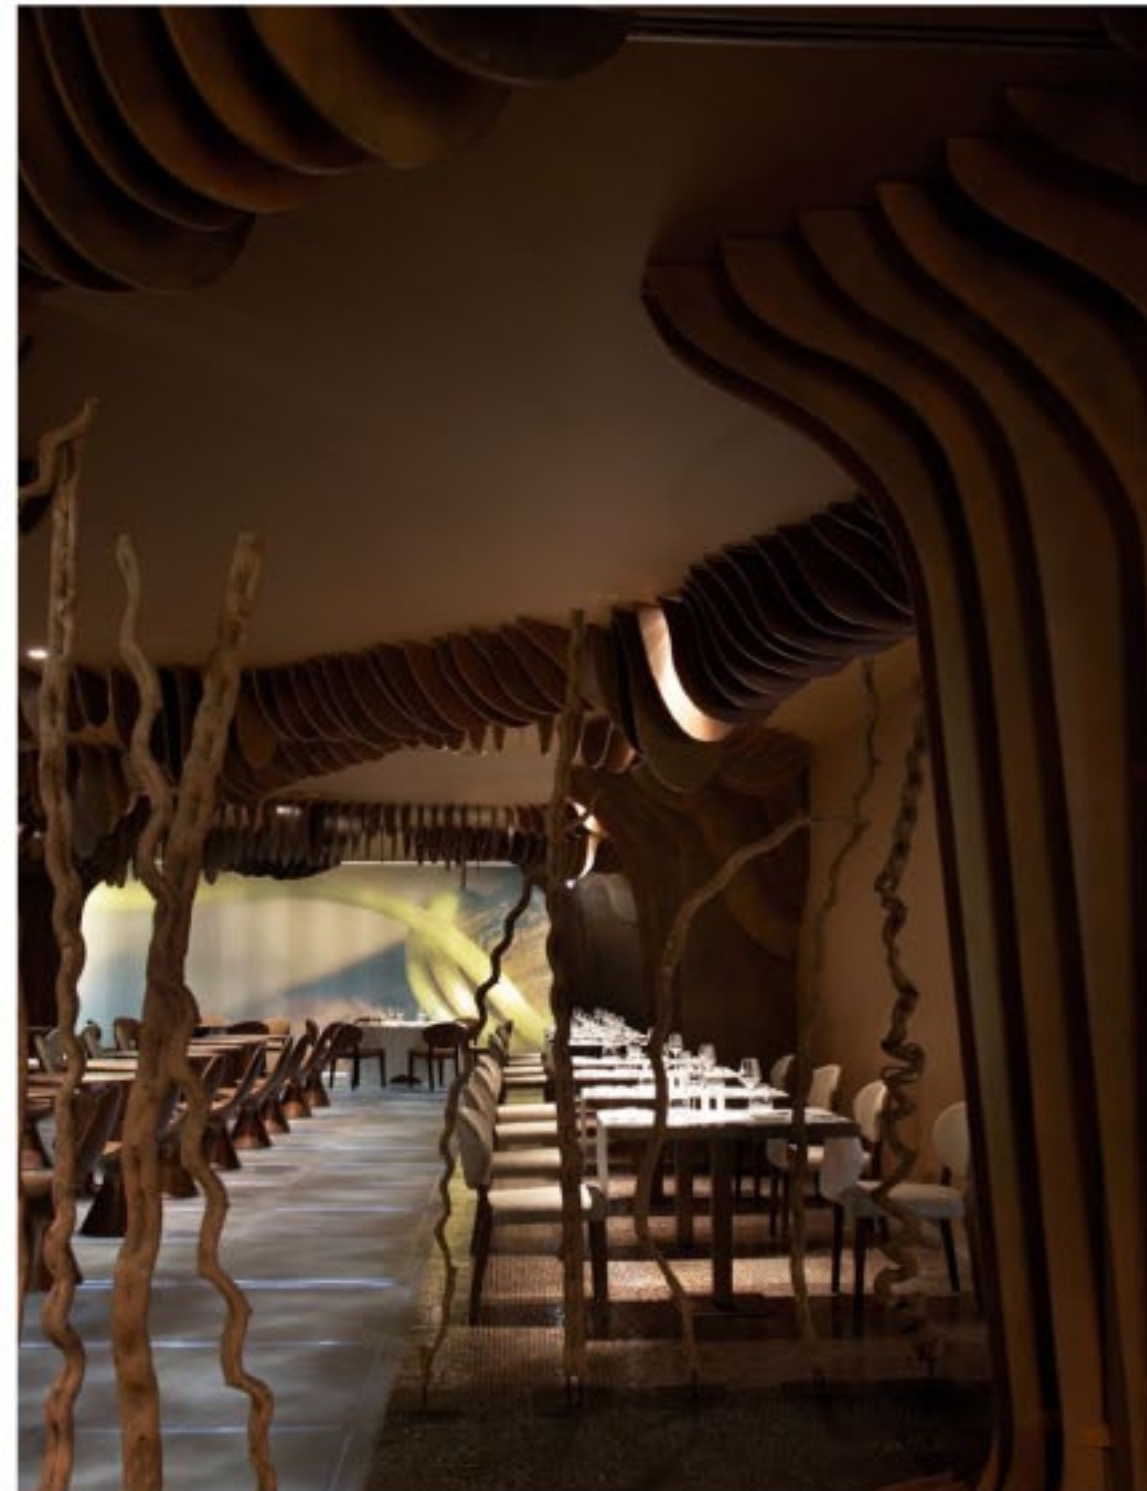

Occasionally, moreover, one may live in the ideas of someone and feel their heartbeats as he approaches a painting that he admires, a couch that he has spent a lifetime with, or an antique that returns him to special moments he has lived somewhere in this world.

Design & Interior ARCHITECTS

And sometimes, you may even go farther as you discover that the imagination of a unique designer such as artist Nini can create for you ideas that will pull you out of your little world and carry you to places that live on adventurous colours and motions of design.

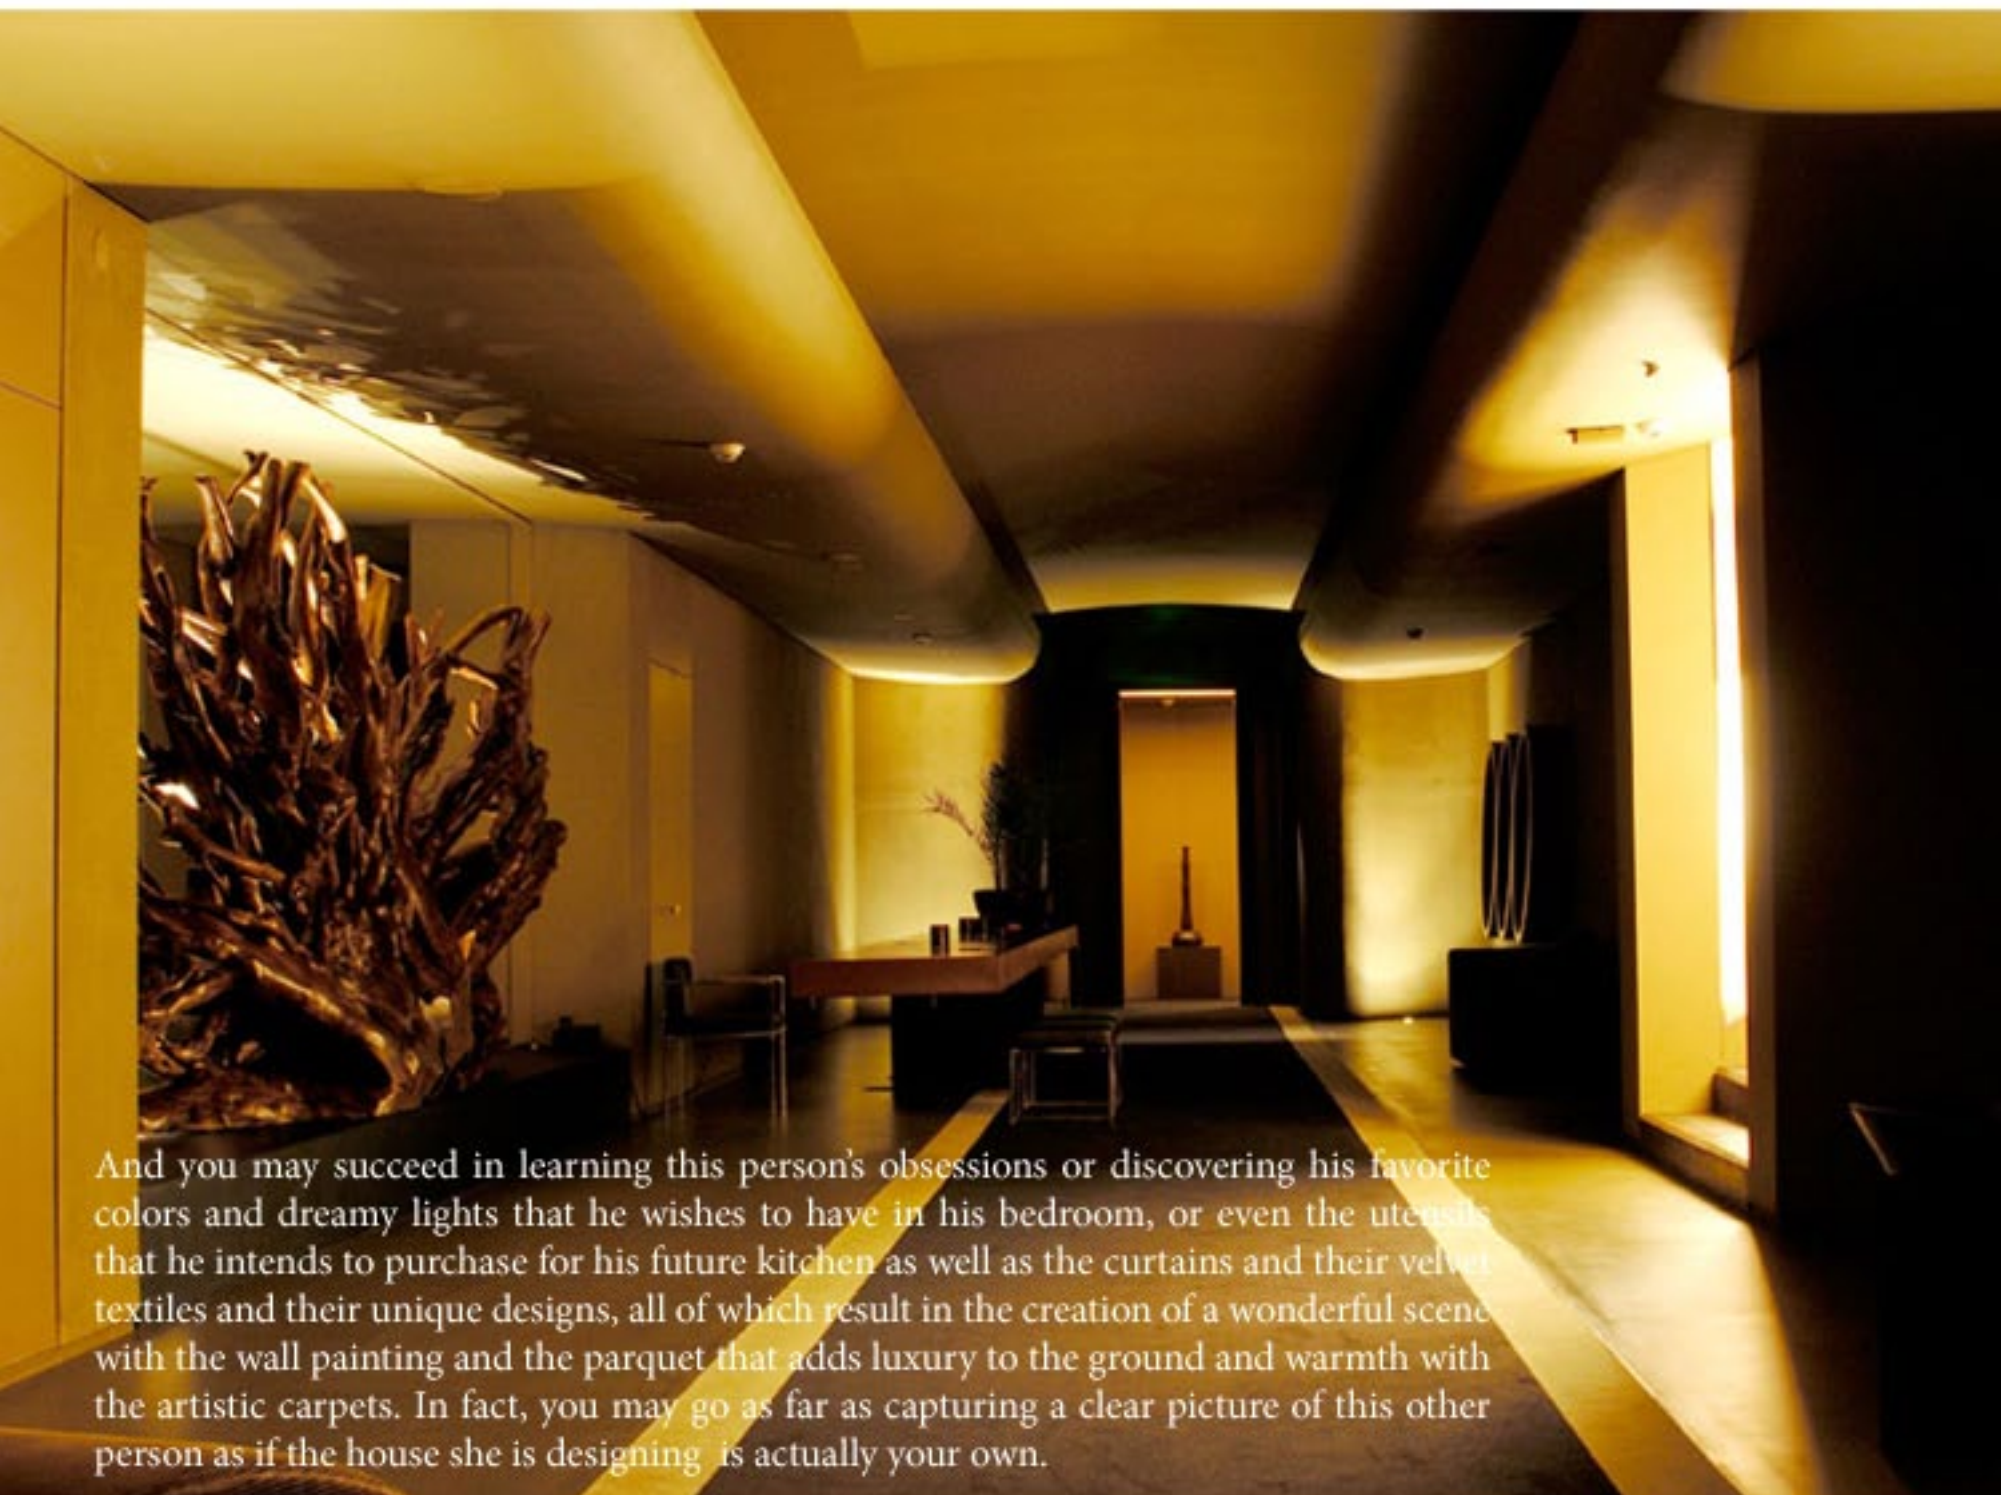

Design & Interior ARCHITECTS

Occasionally, you may be lucky enough to become that person and find out firsthand the corner that this person loves to sit for his morning coffee, how he blends with the light coming from outside, how he reacts with the elements of nature whether they be fresh scents or beautiful forms, and the various shapes that he would like to have painted in the corners of his home or office. This is where the brilliance of designer Nini Silva lies as she presents untraditional and unique forms that are like nothing else seen in our daily lives.

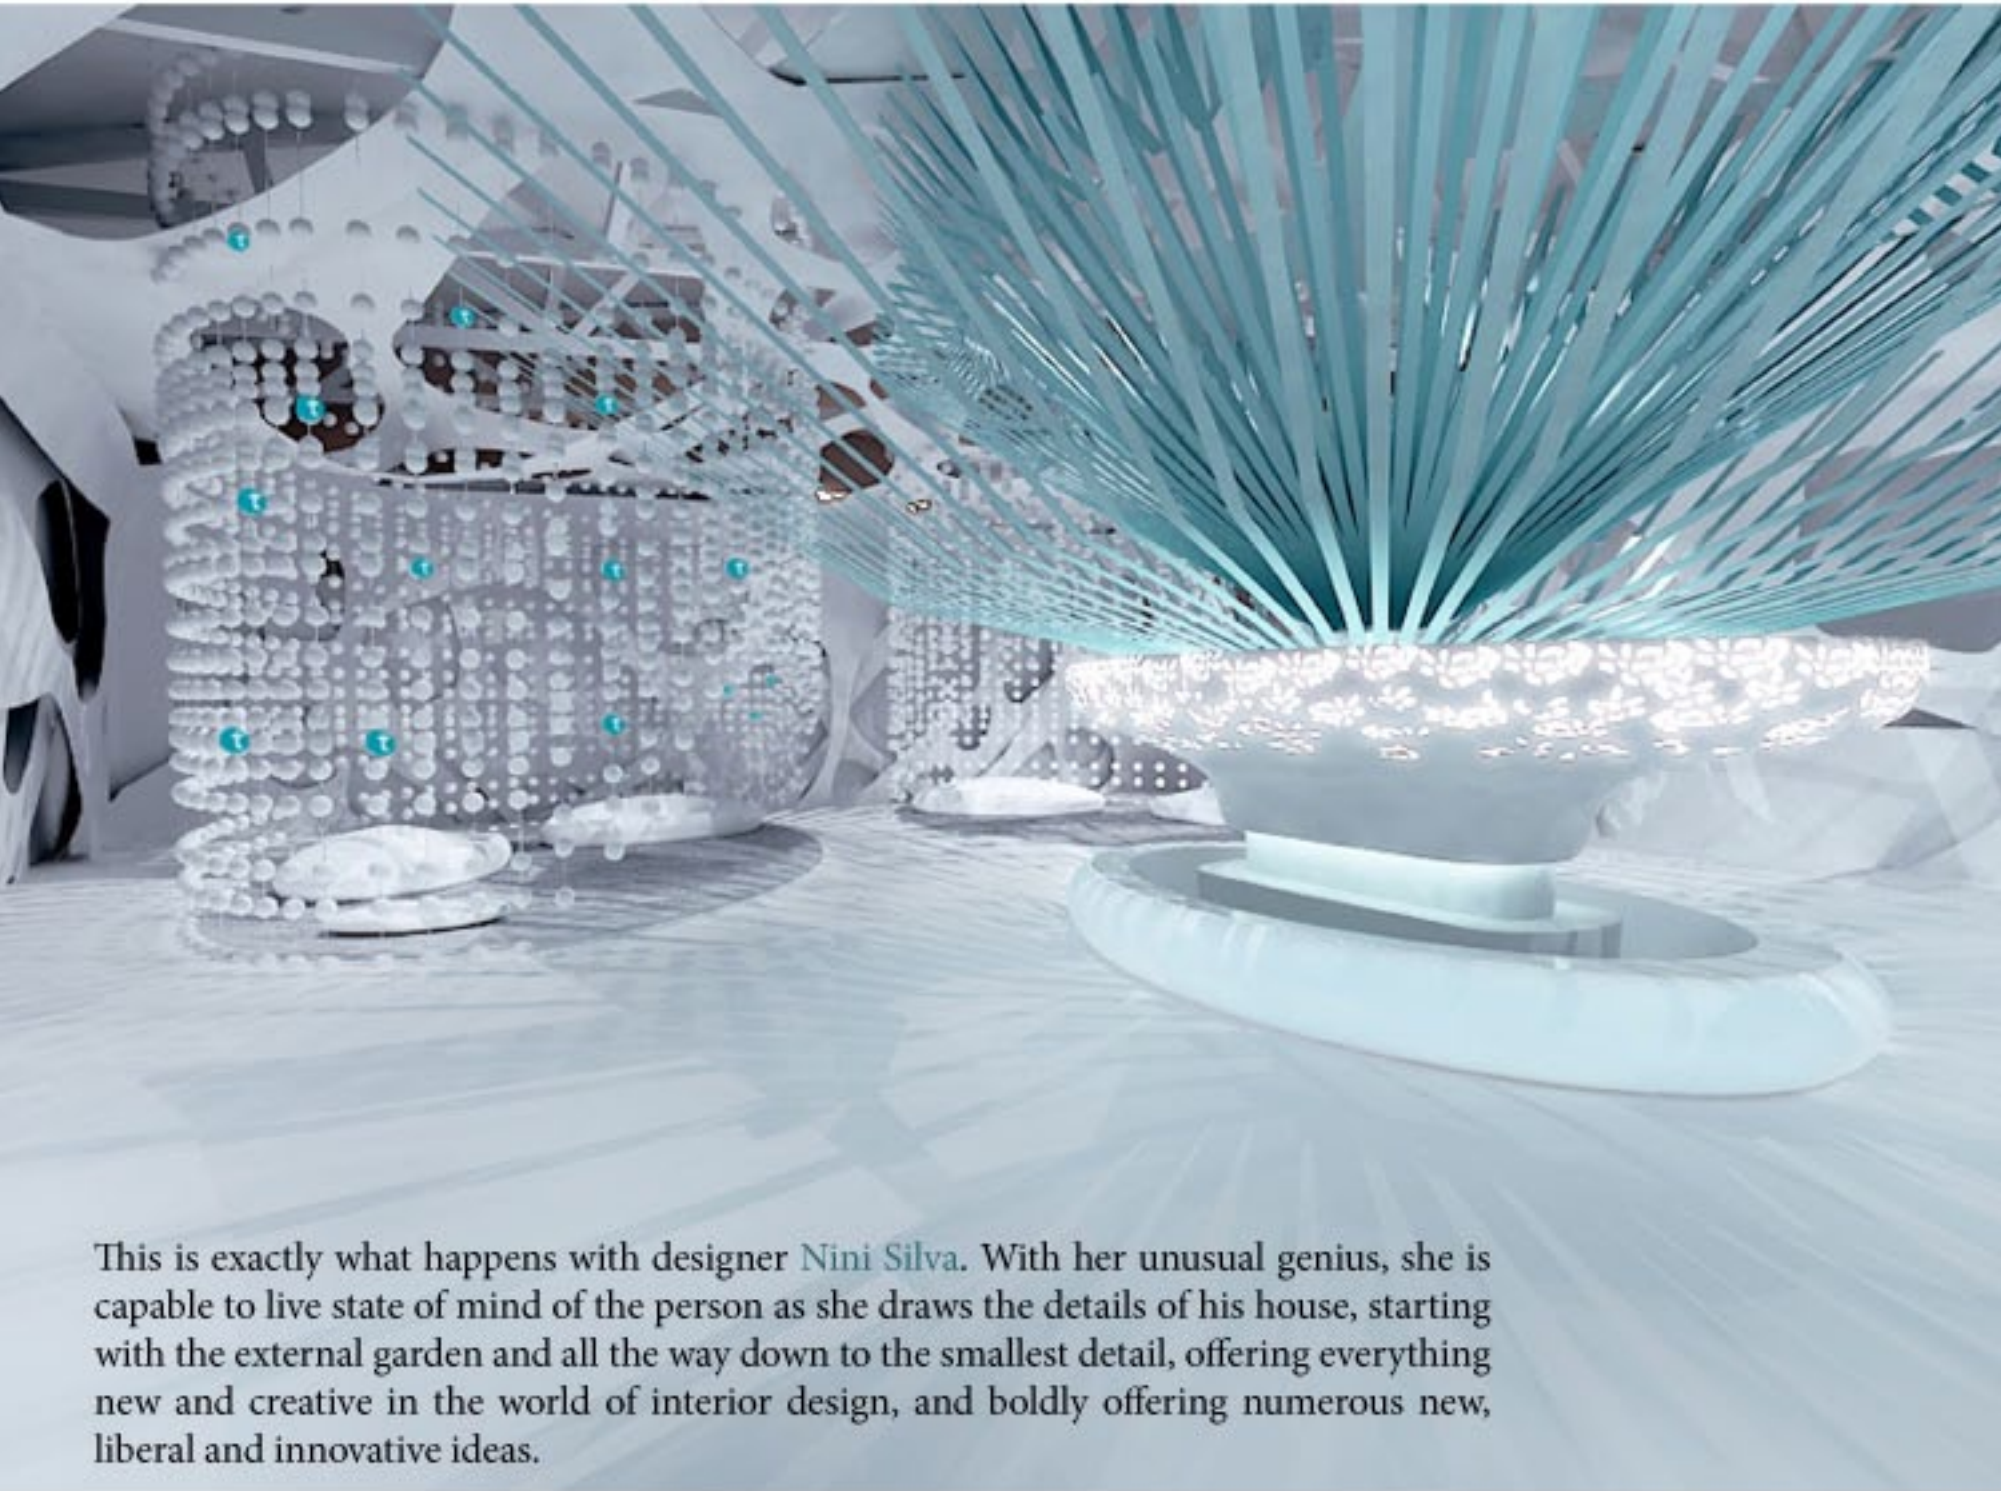

And you may succeed in learning this person's obsessions or discovering his favorite colors and dreamy lights that he wishes to have in his bedroom, or even the utensils that he intends to purchase for his future kitchen as well as the curtains and their velvet textures and their unique designs, all of which result in the creation of a wonderful scene with the wall painting and the parquet that adds luxury to the ground and warmth with the artistic carpets. In fact, you may go as far as capturing a clear picture of this other person as if the house she is designing is actually your own.

This is exactly what happens with designer Nini Silva. With her unusual genius, she is capable to live state of mind of the person as she draws the details of his house, starting with the external garden and all the way down to the smallest detail, offering everything new and creative in the world of interior design, and boldly offering numerous new, liberal and innovative ideas.

